Nomination of national monuments for inscription on the UNESCO World Heritage List and the World Monuments Watch List of 100 Most Endangered Monuments

Commission has formally decided to nominate three monuments for inscription on the UNESCO World Heritage List:

- The Old Bridge in Mostar (inscribed on the World Heritage List in July 2005)
- The Mehmed Pasha Sokolović Bridge in Višegrad (inscribed on the World Heritage List in July 2007)
- The historic town of Jajce.

In 2007 the Commission drafted nominations for the inscription of five national monuments on the UNESCO Tentative List.

In 2006 the Mehmed Pasha Sokolović Bridge in Višegrad was added to the WMW List of 100 Most Endangered Monuments, followed in 2007 by the City Hall in Sarajevo.

The screenshot displays the official website of the Commission to Preserve National Monuments of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The header includes the organization's name in both Bosnian and English, accompanied by the national flag. The main navigation area is divided into several key sections:

- GALERIJA (Gallery): A grid of images showcasing various cultural heritage sites across Bosnia and Herzegovina.
- IZLOŽBA (Exhibition): A section titled "Kulturno pamćenje - blago koje nestaje" (Cultural Memory - Treasures that are disappearing), featuring a large image of a historical site.
- NACIONALNI SPOMENICI (National Monuments): A list of designated national monuments, each with a small image and descriptive text.
- AKTIVNOSTI (Activities): A section detailing the Commission's activities, including decisions on the designation of properties as national monuments, lists of properties at risk, and heritage at risk.
- SERVISI (Services): A section providing information on how to contact the Commission, including a forum and an online gallery.

The website also features a sidebar with additional content, including a "GALERIJA" section and a "IZLOŽBA" section. The overall design is clean and professional, with a focus on showcasing the rich cultural heritage of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

EUROPEAN HERITAGE AWARD 2010

The jury's announcement of the award to the Commission to Preserve National Monuments includes the following:

“The work of the Commission is an example to the whole of Europe, representing as it does a contribution to the preservation of unity in diversity and the universal values of the heritage. It is a particularly significant example of conflict resolution in a world in which the cultural heritage is being used as an instrument and target for the destruction of communities.”
